Gone is the face I loved so dear.
Silent is the voice I loved to hear;
Too iar away for sight or speech.
But not too iar for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him, who once was

In love he lived, in peace he died. His life was asked, but God denied. BY HIS WIFE.

You suffered hours, yes, hours of pain, To wait for cure, but all in vain: Till God above knew what was best. He called you home to give you rest. We never thought when you left home That you never would return: That you soon in death would sleep And leave us here to mourn.

Our hearts still ache with sadness, Our eyes shed many a tear. God only knows how we miss you At the end of our sad year. We do not know the pain you bore, We did not see you die. We only know you went away And did not say good-by. Somewhere, when our work is finished.
With joy we shall meet you on that beautiful shore of rest and peace.

THE LARGEST

UNDERTAKERS

IN THE WORLD

In the last 15 years, I have buried more people per population than any other large city undertaker in the world. When Chambers is your undertaker you have the biggest and best equipped in the city.

There are others like everything else, and very good ones, too, but if you don't know exactly whose advice to take, use your own! It's better to be safe than sorry. Call
